DID YOU KNOW???

Ten generations ago you had 1,024 ancestors; most of us are descended more than once from the same couple, thus becoming our own cousins. Twenty generations back you had 1,048,576 ancestors--you can't run out of kin.

* PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE *

Greetings:

The May meeting of CGCGS focused on the installation of officers for 1984-1986. Those officers installed were: Marilyn Freeman, President; Dawn Detring, Vice-President; Dorothy Crites, Recording Secretary; Alma Lee Slinkard, Treasurer; Alice Spillman, Corresponding Secretary and Elsie Reynolds, Historian. In the near future a listing of all the Committee Chairman will be given.

Personally speaking, I am honored to be selected by my peers as the new President of CGCGS; but in reality...my knees shake and heart skips a beat when I think of the responsibility I have undertaken. I sincerely hope that I can continue the excellent work Jean (Adams), our Past President, has initiated. It is hard to put into words the impact Jean had as President. Simply it would be...."You did a fantastic job Jean, above and beyond the call of duty!"

According to Shirley Schott, Surname Chairman, our new comprehensive Surname Book should be completed soon and available for sale by September. Also, the 1870 Cape Girardeau County Federal Census should be typed, indexed and ready for sale this fall. Watch the feature, CGCGS Publications, in the COLLAGE for their availability.

We would like to encourage all members (past and new) to contribute stories, wills, Bible records, etc. for publication in the COLLAGE. The COLLAGE reaches a multitude of people as it is sent to members in many states and exchanged with quite a number of other Genealogy groups and libraries.

Bob White, a Professor in the History Department at Southeast Missouri State University, will be our guest speaker in September.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. LOUISA DEANE

Sketch Of Her Family

The death of Mrs. Louisa Deane, which occurred on February 26, 1910, after two weeks illness of pneumonia, removed the last of the 18 children born to Anthony B. Penney, by three marriages, first to Jane English, 10 children, names: Susan, Caroline, Mary, Addie, Robert, William, Thomas B. and Oscar Rodney. Two died in infancy. Second marriage to Miss Hayden, 4 children, names: Marie and Louisa, twins born in 1849, Uiril called "Bud" lived to be 22 years old and one died in infancy. Third marriage to Miss Alice V. Dunn, October 18, 1853, four children: only one, Walter Dunn Penney lived to be grown.

Aunt Lou was born near Gordonville and lived in that vicinity all her life, a period of 60 years; was twice married, first to John Abernathy who was an own cousin of W. W., J.D. and R.P. Taylor, their Mothers being sisters. Uncle John died in October, 1875, leaving Aunt Lou and 2 little girls, Alice and Irene. Alice married Henry Volkerding; Irene md. G.W. Tisdale. Aunt Lou was married the second time to James E. Deane, July 1879. She joined the Baptist Church at Hubble Creek in her 16th year under the ministry of Rev. John H. Clark, later the Methodist in which faith she died. She died at the homestead of her daughter, Mrs. G.W. Tisdale, was buried in the Canteberry Cemetery February 28th. Services were conducted by Rev. H.T. Ham. She left a husband, two daughters, 7 grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn her death.

Our Grandfather, A.B. Penney, was born August 10, 1801 and two of his children lived a few years in the present century; viz; Aunt Lou and the writers father, O.R. Penney.

In writing a sketch of this family, will trust to family tradition some; also obtaining much valuable matter from an old newspaper containing a sketch of the life of Mrs. Matilda Rodney Block. Mrs. Block was my father's cousin, her mother and my grandfather, A.B. Penney, being brother & sister.

The founder of the family in this county was William Archibald Penney, a native of Wales. He went first to South Carolina, then middle Tennessee, where he married Susan Bledsoe, who was the daughter of Col. Anthony Bledsoe. His brother, Isaac Bledsoe was called by the Indians "warring Corn Blade". Both were distinguished leaders of the people and both killed by the Indians in 1787.

In 1808 our grandfather and family came to Cape Girardeau and stopped at the home of Don Louis Lorimier, commander of the Post and first settler of Cape Girardeau County. Lorimier and Penney's families at the time consisted of six children each, Lorimier's wife was an Indian. One historian says she was a Delaware, one a Shawnee. 1808 was also the year of her death. W.A. Penney's children were Pollie, Peggy and Matilda, Anthony B, Isaac, Thomas and William Archibald Jr. who was born in Cape Girardeau County. Our great grandfather was a gunsmith by trade, but principally followed farming, living on the Rodney farm several years and later on the farm now owned by C.P. Medley, where our great grandmother died in the early thirties. The eldest daughter, Pollie, married Thomas B. Rodney, an early and prominent citizen of the Cape Girardeau district. He was a widower, his first wife was a daughter of Lorimier named Marie Louise. The daughter, Peggy, married Louis Lorimier, a son of Don Louis Lorimier. Her second marriage was to Edward Walker. She outlived them both many years. Matilda married Michael Rodney, a large planter living in New Madrid County. They were the parents of Mrs. Block, who died at the Cape 8 years ago at the age 86 years. She and her husband lived and celebrated their golden wedding at Cape Girardeau in 1862. They kept the St. Charles Hotel many years.

Anthony B., my grandfather, and his wife, Alice, both died in the same house in Jackson, where Dr. Vinyard lives. He died November 13, 1878 at age 78, she April 4, 1880 aged 47. Isaac was married twice, I believe, had several children, 2 living: Mrs. Pollie Demortise of Cape Girardeau and Zalma B. Penney of Dunklin County. One son, W.A. died a few years ago, another John, we believe was the father of Mrs. Sam Lail. Heard of a daughter Mrs. Peggy Miller. The youngest, William Archibald, spent much time with the Indians, his brother-in-law, Louis Lorimier, being appointed Indian Agent for the Delaware & Shawnee tribes, then living where Bloomfield now is. Lorimier was appointed by President Madison.

Our Great Grandmother was a woman of firmness and very religious. According to tradition one Saturday evening her son, Isaac, went to a horse race, bet his colt and lost it. Next morning she was lying on the lounge reading her bible when one of the girls came in and said "Ham, two men are taking off Ike's colt". On her going to the door she saw two men in the act of leading the colt out of the barn. She says, "If you men take that colt outside of them bars I'll make you smoke for it. Ike is not of age yet". She then went and laid down. The men parleyed a little, slipped the bridle off, put up the bars and went away.

My father remembered his grandfather well, as he lived at their house after his wife's death, living several years. Said he was a little old man, walked with a cane, sat in the chimney corner and never had much to say, made a pet of father's youngest sister, Addie, who was a baby when her mother died. If any of the older children displeased Addie they had to look out for grandfather's cane. Col. William Neely who represented Cape Girardeau District in the State or Territorial government in the early days and William Archibald Penney Sr. were brother-in-laws, marrying sisters. Our great grandfather opposed the match of his daughter, Peggy, made with Lorimier, they having to elope, but as is always the case they soon fell in the ranks.

Land at that time must have had little value as tradition says Don Louis Lorimier once gave 640 acres for a horse, bridle and saddle. The founders of these two families each have two descendants in Cape Girardeau, namely: Helen Uhl and Joseph Marshall Snider. Joseph Marshall Snider is a descendant of Wm. Archibald Penney, Sr. being his gr. gr. grandson. The children of J.F. Medley's first wife are also gr. grandchildren of W.A. Penney Sr. They are W.O. and J.S. Medley of the county; T.A. Medley of Dunklin Co., Mrs. Annie Behrens and Mrs. Christine Gherman of DeSota, Mo. Mrs. Elodie Snider, decd, was the youngest.

The founder of the Rodney family was a Hessian soldier named, Martin Rodney. In the language of the writer of Mrs. Block's life these three once prominent families that had much to do with the early settlement of Cape Girardeau County, as well as the whole of Southeast Missouri are fast disappearing.

One thing, I think, is well--Lorimier and his family are all buried near each other in the Old City Cemetery, Cape Girardeau. The graves are all marked, three of the Penney's children also, viz; Isaac, Peggy and Pollie.

A Cape paper, in giving past events from old files, has this "Louis Lorimier, grandson of Don Louis Lorimier, died aged 53". The facts are he was the great grandson of both Don Louis Lorimier & Wm. Archibald Penney Sr. and was named after both----Louis Archibald Lorimier.

Respectfully,
W.O. PENNEY

QUERIES

MEYR
STARZINGER
KRAML
PERR

Need parents' names and immigration information on Joseph and Johann Meyr of New Wells, who emigrated from Austria (town unknown) in 1852 and 1853, respectively. Joseph Meyr (1819-1895) married Anna Marie Starzinger (no additional information available). They were parents to Gustav Adolph Meyr (1864-1948) of New Wells. Also need parents and immigration information on Joseph Perr (1837-1914) of New Wells, who married Marie Kraml (1857-1943), parents of Pauline Marie Perr (1876-1946), wife of Gustav Meyr.

GUY

Who are Nathan and Elizabeth Wilkinson mentioned in a marriage record (written in French) of Deed Book A and B, Cape Girardeau Co, MO, 20 Sept 1800, when she marries John Johnson. In the absence of a priest, ceremony performed by Louis Lorimier. Mentions Elizabeth's former husband, Henry Guy, in Green Co, TN. Are they related to William and James Wilkinson who came from Johnston Co, NC and bought land in Cape Girardeau Co, MO in 1806?

SCOTT
REVELLE

Would like information on Preston Scott, b ca 1825-30 KY, and moved to Bollinger Co, MO in 1850's. He and first wife (Margaret) had children: Thomas, Franklin, Sarah Watson, Andrew, John and George. He married Sarah Hilton in 1872 and had these children: Samuel Preston, Mary Ellen, Margaret and Cornelius. Is this Sarah Hilton the same one as listed in the 1850 Cape Girardeau Co, MO census in the household of John and Jane Hilton? In 1890 Preston Scott married Minta Revelle. Need his death date and place of burial. Also would appreciate more information on the family of John and Jane Hilton.
