From the President

Dear Cape Girardeau County Genealogical Society Members,

It's a dreary November day as I write this message, and thoughts are starting to turn from outdoor activities to indoor ones. Of course, one of our favorite ones at this time of the year is genealogy! This is not only a good time to think about researching, but also to think about organizing your research. Sort out those stacks of accumulated paper from correspondence or copying. Implement a filing system for them. If you are looking for ideas on how to do this, a ton of them can be viewed at: <http://www.cyndislist.com/organize.htm>. There are also a number of books on the topic.

Another winter project is to sit back and think about writing your family history. A good first step is deciding how to organize your writing project, and then outline it before writing. While Family Treemaker and a number of other programs will prepare a book from your recorded data, it is far more interesting, and far more "you" to write your own. Don't think you can tackle an entire book? Well, then write about it one family at a time, and don't forget to submit these vignettes to your favorite genealogical publication.

One project I may undertake this winter is to (finally) catalog my books and genealogical publications. It does get a bit old to remember that I've got a book, but don't know where to put my hands on it. Many people may organize by author or by title alphabetically, but I prefer the method we use in the Society's library. General works and abstracts of records are organized by location (oftentimes county), and family histories are arranged alphabetically by surname. However, whatever works best for YOU is actually the preferred method.

Organizing your research also should include organizing what you have collected in electronic format. Folders, subfolders, etc. are probably the best way to do this. Be sure you have the folder by surname or location, or by type of record. While you are at it, back them up on a flash drive, CD, or portable hard drive. Nothing is worse than the sick feeling that your computer has crashed, and you've lost irreplaceable data forever.

Thanks to Pat Elmore for sending the slave records from the Sarah Cone Joyce Bible. The Spear records are from the extensive Jean Adams' files that will be providing us with a lot of information for many years. Again, please write an article (or more!) on your own families and send it our way for the Collage!

I hope this holiday season is very good to you and yours!

Sincerely,

John Jacob Cordell Slave Births from Sarah Cone Joyce Bible

This list of slaves and other Bible records was sent to me by Judith Pedigo who lived in Texas and gave me permission to publish them. Judith is a descendant of Simeon and Erina (McFerron) English. Beginning in about 1852 several related families—McFerron, English, Anderson, Wolfe, Kinnison, and others—left Cape Girardeau County and went to Red River County, Texas. Many of these family members are buried at the English Family Cemetery and/or the Methodist Church Cemetery at English, Texas. At the top of the paper is the statement that the records came from Sarah Cone Joyce's Bible. Sarah was the daughter of Hannah (English) and Edward Joyce, and the wife of Thomas Ballew English. I am a great-great-great granddaughter of Thomas and Sarah English.

I have not researched the records of John Jacob Cordell. His probate is Box 059, Bundle 1164 in the Cape Girardeau County Archive Center.

Written at the top of one of the typewritten pages is the number "12." I assume that there are 12 or more pages of family records. The following from page 12 shows the relationship of the English family to the Cordell family:

"Margaret Eliza Cordell, born September 16, 1824....married George M. Beattie May 20, 1847 died _____. There were several children born of this marriage among the children was Elizabeth Gayle Beattie born _____ she married John J. Scherrer, _____ a child was born of this marriage, Margaret Judith Scherrer born May 13, 1866..."

Margaret Judith Scherrer married Henry R. English on November 26, 1883 in Cape Girardeau County. Henry R. English was the son of Thomas and Sarah English.

The following is copied from an extraneous page found in a family Bible with the name of Sarah Cone Joyce in front. These facts are recorded in the handwriting of John Jacob Cordell, and spelled as he wrote it:

SPEARS FAMILY

Late in 1816 Capt. John Thompson married Sarah Spears, the widow of Edward A. Spears, Jr., who was killed in the Battle of the Sink Hole and was buried at Ft. Howard, Missouri.

EDWARD A. SPEARS JR. had been married before he married Sarah. His first wife was Jane WOLTER. He had 7 children, but it has been impossible to determine how many were Sarah's. We have the following as children of Edward Spears:

1. Clarissa SPEAR, b. 6 Sep 1803, married George WILLIAMS
2. Laura Ann SPEAR, b. 4 Oct 1804, married John WATERS in 1825. Both died 15 May 1836, leaving 6 children

Dear Cousin Louella McNeely Bloom,

Your good and valuable letter 25th inst., received yesterday. We both thank you very much for it: as it puts us in line for getting a full account of Aunt Clar's family. There is only one name that is not distinctly given, viz: "Mrs. David _____land" Watsonville, Calif. You say you have 4 boys. I would like to have their names and ages In fact, I would like to reach the latest generations.

When I was in California in the early 80's, I got a good deal of information: but that was all stolen while I was living in the city of Mexico. The information I am now gathering I am trying to send to various parts in way of outline, so that should anything happen to me or the original notes there would remain in substance copies. Thinking that you, your family and co-families may be interested in your forebearers I take pleasure in making for you the following notes. A good many of them you may have, but some of them you may not have.

THE WILLIAMS FAMILY

Your great-grandfather Charles Williams was of Welsh descent. He was born in 1775 in Norfolk, Virginia. One of the happy thoughts of his life was that from the old home he heard the guns at Yorktown which practically closed the Revolutionary War. On reaching his majority he moved to Harper's Ferry. There he married Mary Harvey. At Harper's Ferry he assisted in placing of the first anvil. Was later promoted to Master Armorer, then became Inspector-of-Arms for the U.S. at Harper's Ferry and Philadelphia. In 1815 he resigned and came to Missouri. Died Oct. 10, 1814 on Indian Creek where he had settled (I think on what is now John McLain's farm). Col. H. H. M. Williams used to say that his grandfather was a great hunter and liked frontier life. His wife Mary Harvey Williams died 1836 at the age of 49.

They left one son George Harvey Williams, born Dec. 28, 1802 at Harper's Ferry.

About 1820 your grandfather George H. Williams married Jane Minton who was born in Mo. in 1803. She died 1821. To them was born one son, Harrison Harvey Minton Williams. (H. H. M. Williams graduated at William & Mary's College, Maryland. Studied Law. Was county treasurer and Public Administrator 15 years and 40 years in commercial business. Died at Jackson Feb. 15, 1906. Jan. 21, 1847 he married Bernice Daugherty. Only 4 of his children are now living, Connie, who married Ben Ferguson, Missie, who married Silas Brown, Harris now a widower, and Samuel who married Freida Wellington. To them were born one daughter and 7 sons. All the children of much promise. They live on the old farm called Fairy Lawn.) [Editor's note: Apparently the information on H. H. M. Williams is from his obituary, which contained these facts. The college is at Emmetsberg, Md. At 23, according to the obituary, he was made the Colonel of a regiment during the Mexican War, but wasn't called into action.]

George H. Williams, your grandfather, after the death of his first wife married my wife's Aunt Clara Spear, the eldest daughter and child of Edward Spear.

My wife's grandfather and your great-grandfather Edward Spear was born in New England, am told in Connecticut (?). Came to Missouri about the beginning of the 19th century. The first we have record in which his name appears is that in which is recorded the organization of the Bethel Baptist Church one and half miles south of Jackson, Cape Girardeau Co., Mo., at the house of Thomas Bull, July 19, 1806. This is said to have been the first Baptist church organized. You no doubt know that until Missouri and the rest of Louisiana Territory was purchased by the U. S. in 1803, no Protestant church was allowed in said territory. Have not yet been able to find the name of Edward Spear's wife. They were married 1802 or 1802.

To Edward Spear and his wife were born 3 daughters: Clara, Laura, and Mary, and 3 sons: William, Edward, and Henry DeSidney.

A. Clara (Clarissa), the eldest who married George H. Williams was born in Cape Girardeau Co., Mo. (?) 1802 or '03. You say Pennsylvania. (You know all about the family.) [Written in as a footnote: According to her tombstone, Black A, Row 29, Grave 3, Pioneer Cemetery, Watsonville, CA, Clarissa Spear Williams was born "Sept 16, 1803" died "April 20, 1879"]

B. Laura Ann Spear was born near Jackson, Mo. Oct. 4, 1804. Jan. 23, 1825, she married John Waters who was born April 15, 1793 and was the son of Maj. Thomas W. Waters of South Carolina and Fannie Davis, Maj. 2nd wife.

Children:

(1) Polly Shaw Waters b Nov 1825, m. Dr. Crow

(2) Francis Elizabeth b July 1827 m. Wm. Meador July 13, 1844 and died Oct 27, 1845

(3) Thomas W. b Mar 16 1829 was brought up by my wife's grandfather, Edward Criddle and her step-grandmother. He learned the printer's trade and became a rambler. Married late in life. Died in San Francisco about 1881. No children

- (4) Clarissa Amelia Waters b Nov 12 1831 m John Ranney.
- (5) Nancy Caroline b Nov 8 1833 m Eleazer Black
- (6) John Richard Henry b Feb 10, 1836 m Cathrine J. Dodds and died Mar 7, 1864. His wife died Jan. 1863. Wife b Coldsell, Ky., Aug. 1, 1858 [sic]. They had two children. Thomas Francis Waters born Oct. 13, 1859 m Martha Bumpuss of Maries Co., Mo. Nov. 6, 1881, and Ann Amelia Waters b Nov. 10, 1860 m Wiley Riley of Ky. In 1882. She and her family now live in Lordsburg, Calif. Two children, a son and daughter
 - a. Thomas F. and Catherine Waters 4 children:
 - i. Dr. H. B. Waters at Vienna, Mo. b 1882
 - ii. Mary Catherine Coates b 1884
 - iii. Wm Eugene Coates b 1886
 - iv. Thomas Bryon Coates b 1889

John and Laura (Spear) Waters died within a few hours of each other May 15, 1836 leaving the six children, the eldest a little over 10 years old and the youngest only 3 months old. Thomas W. Waters' life was more or less reckless. The others made a worthy record and their descendants are making good.

- C. Mary Spear was born near Jackson. She was married, first to a Mr. Shaw, after his death she married a Mr. Trotter. They moved to the South. So far I have not been able to get any trace of the family.
- D. William Spear went to Franklin Co. Mo., married, settled on a farm and had children. Since the Civil War no word has come from any member of the family.
- E. Edward Spear went to Illinois. Said to have married, but no one seems to know what became of him.
- F. Henry DeSidney Spear was the youngest child. He was born near Jackson Mo. May 6, 1813. He was my wife's father.

(Before I write of Father Spear, I think I should tell you more about your Great-grandfather, Edward Spear.)

In speaking of him on the 3rd page of this letter, I said nothing about his military career; because I know you have a book giving an account of the battle in which he was killed. Thinking it over, however, I may have some data you do not have and for the sake of your children ought to have; hence this further statement.

Until 1812, the Americans who settled west of the Mississippi River lived quite peaceable with the Indians. In that year the English began to awaken jealousy among the Indians. In 1813 they began to annoy and threaten the white settlers to such an extent that it became necessary to organize a military force for self protection.

Among the first companies organized for this purpose was one by Mr. Andrew Ranney [Editor's Note: Ramsey]. This was about July, 1813. During the year there was little to do but police the district. In May and June of 1814, Capt. Craig raised another company for one year and Edward Spear and others were permitted to join the new company and Grandfather Spear was made Lt. Most of this year was given to police duty but in the spring of 1815 the Indians north and west of St. Louis began to commit depredations and defy the Americans. The result was "The Battle the Sink Hole" near Ft. Howard north of Missouri River below St. Charles. The battle was fought May 22, 1815. In the last charge, in the moment of victory, Lt. Spear was shot in the forehead while leading his soldiers on to victory. His death was greatly lamented. Capt. Craig and he were rated the bravest of

The Will of Lt. Edward A. Spear

I, Edward Spear of the County of Cape Girardeau and Territory of Missouri, now at Camp Defiance (West of St. Louis on Mo. River) in the County of Charles and Territory aforesaid, being about to go into a campaign against the Indians, do make, ordain and publish this my last will and testament, revoking and annulling all former wills made by me.

After paying all my just debts which I wish to be done as soon as possible, after my decease, I do disperse of the residue of my estate of what so ever kind it may consist in the manner as follows; to wit:

After my just debts are paid as aforesaid - I do give and bequeath unto my loving wife Sarah Spear to be disposed of as she may think best, trusting that she will use it in the supporting of my children with as much judgement as if I were alive. All the residue of my estate, and I do hereby appoint my wife Sarah Spear my executrix to this my last will and testament.

In witness where of I have here unto set my seal and subscribe my name to the same the 30th day of August 1813.

(Signed)

Edward Spear, Jr.

the brave. In Miles Register Vol. VIII, page 312, July 1, 1815, Mr. Achcambrun says in a letter that, "Craig and Spear would both have done better in combat with regular troops: because they evinced such contempt of danger and death that they despised the devices made by the Indians."

Here was a mother left a widow with six children, the eldest your grandmother, only 12 years of age and the youngest, Henry DeSidney, my wife's father, 2 years and 18 days. When we consider the newness of the country's, the hardships of pioneer life and dangers from savage men that mother with her little children entered on great responsibilities. If causes can be by effects measured the high characters of her children and their descendants speak for the motherly instinct, hope, faith and common sense of that struggling widowed mother. It grieves me to think that I cannot even find out her Christian name, to say nothing of her maiden name. I cannot find out when she died or where she sleeps. Surely somewhere there is a Spear record, or a Spear Bible that gives her name and the date of her last farewell. Didn't Aunt Clara have the old family Bible? Have you not in the family somewhere record of your Great-grandmother's name and death?

That you may not judge those days by present standards and thus unconsciously fail to do justice to your ancestors a few historical facts are not out of place. The Louisiana Territory of which Missouri was a part was settled by the French; in 1763, it was ceded to Spain; in 1800 it was ceded back to France; in 1803 it was purchased by the U. S. for $5,000,000. During the French and Spanish rule the Catholics had full sway. The civilization was that of southern Europe. Manuel Gayoso, Governor General, gave orders to the various commandants not only to allow no Protestants to enter, but also if found in the Territory, to expel them, even though they possessed much property. Jackson, Cape Girardeau Co., Mo., was not laid out until 1815. When the Baptist Church was organized in 1806, near where Jackson is now [sic].

Cape Girardeau Co. contained only 521 non-Indian men, women, and children. St. Charles, Mo. had a population of 875. St. Louis, 925. Ste. Genevieve, 946. All Missouri had a population of only 6000. There was no mail service. It was nearly 30 years later before there was a regular steamboat on the Mississippi River. Nearly 40 years before there was a railway west of the Mississippi River. 50 years before there was a telegraph line, sewing machine, washing machine, reaping machine, thrashing machine, or box of matches. Every man was his own lawyer. Every mother was house keeper, cook, tailor, nurse and medical director. Every young lady weaved her own clothes, made her own bonnets, used a basin of water for a mirror, was natural, sweet, and healthy. Every young man free from hook-worms, was honest, polite, industrious and ambitious. Such was life in Missouri in 1806.

There was almost no money in circulation, but no one was permitted to starve. Dancing wasn't always orthodox, but kissing games were in good repute, refreshing and inspiring, without the least danger of catching tuberculosis. Such was dear old Missouri when your Grandma lead the hearts of men.

I have already told you that your great-grandmother Edward Spear's youngest son and child, Henry DeSidney Spear, was born May 6, 1813. His birth place is said to be on the Spear farm on the creek a little north of Jackson. Have also told you that he was my wife's father. During my ten years in Missouri following 1865 I met many who knew personally Henry DeSidney Spear and each one seemed anxious to say a good word about him. He seems to have been bright, winning, and aspiring. Col. H. H. M. Williams once in speaking of Father Spear said he was a man of more than ordinary business ability and had he been brought up in a live business center he undoubtedly would have proved a man among men. In 1848, he went o Calif. and was very successful. He concluded, however, that he had enough on which to live well and that his home and his wife and 4 children were more to him than the promised thousands in gold.

In 1851 he returned to Missouri. He soon made arrangements to go into business with Von Priest at Pocahontas, Ark. While on the road to Pocahontas with his family, he was taken down with cholera and died Sept. 2, 1852. His eldest daughter was under 12 years old and three remarkable daughters who have proved themselves in every relation in life. Princesses among women.

Henry DeSidney Spear, Feb. 22, 1839 mr at Jackson, Mo. Louisa L., or as the old Bible has it, Lititia Louisa Criddle, born at Jackson, Nov. 3, 1818.

Louisa L. Criddle was the 3rd daughter and child of Edward and Nancy L. Williams Criddle, and grand-daughter of John Criddle and Elizabeth Smith Criddle, both of Cumberland Co., Va. The latter was one of the three celebrated Smith beauties of that period.

Father and mother Spear had 3 daughters and one son. The daughters were Eliza Jane, Laura Bell, and Mary Ella. Their son Guild H. Spear, youngest of the family, was born Sept. 20, 1848. He has not married and lives in northern Calif.

The eldest daughter and child Eliza Jane Spear was born at Jackson Sept. 28, 1840. April 17, 1861, at Fairy Lawn, the home of Col. H. H. M. Williams, mr Danial Waldo Woods. To them were born three children: Louise, who married Clarence Clayton, head of a job printing co., St. Louis, Mo., Bernice, who mr. George Lubke, and Attorney-at-law, St. Louis Mo., and Leonard Waldo Woods, a manufacturer and inventor, St. Louis, Mo. Brother Waldo was the son of a Congregational minister. On both sides of old and distinguished families. One of his great-grandfathers was Rev. Joseph Wheeler, who was one of the six volunteers to stake out the ground for the entrenchments which were thrown up on Bunker Hill during the night before the battle. After Washington went to Cambridge, Mass., Mr. Wheeler became chaplain of Washington's staff.

The second daughter and child was Laura Bell Spear. She was born at Benton, Mo. Dec 2m[sic] 1842. January 21, 1868 at Fairylawn she married Theodore Franklin Cannon, b Jackson, Mo. Feb. 14, 1842 d June 25, 1885. They have 7 children, but only two married. Connie Ella Cannon b Apr. 27, 1872 mr Sept. 4, 1909, J. H. Wirecarver, a merchant of Marble Hill, Mo. and Hunter Eliza Cannon, born March 26, 1877 mr. Dec 2, 1909, Mosa S. Henderson of Cape Girardeau Co.

Mary Ella Spear, 3rd child and dau was b at Benton Mo. Sept. 28, 1846, just 6 years later than her sister Eliza. Xmas Day, 1866 at Fairy Lawn she married the writer James Hutchison Kerr b at Chamberbay, Pa. Aug. 30, 1837 [the writer of this letter].

My mother's family, the Hutchisons, fled from Scotland to North Ireland 1680 and my father's family 1685 to escape the religious persecution of Claverhouse. Both sides took part in the siege of Derry 1689 and against James II forces at the Battle of Boyne, July 1, 1690. Our co-families are Wilsons, Watts, and Fultons.

We have two children living, Helen May Kerr, b Nov. 10, 1867 at Iona, Cape Girardeau Co., Mo. Oct 28, 1891 she married Hon. H. M. Blackner, Atty.-at-law, Colo. Springs, Colo. who was b July 25, 1868. They have two children, Myron Kerr Blackner b Feb. 6, 1893. He enters Yale College the coming fall, and Margaret Gray Blackner b Jan. 1, 1896. She closes her Freshman year in June at Rosemary Hall, Greenwich, Conn.

Our son, Dr. Guy Manning Kerr, was b at Fruitland, Cape Girardeau Co., Mo., May 20, 1870. He is a chemist and metallayist. In 1895 after four years in Europe, he took his MA and PhD degrees in Gottinger, Germany. Is no the supt. Of the American Smelting and Refining Co. plant at Leadville, Colo. Apr. 5, 1899 he married the charming Bertha Thompson of New Bedford Mass., b Sept. 23, 1870, a graduate of Smith College in Mass. whom he met in the wilds of Switzerland. They have one son living, John J. H. Kerr, b at Pueblo, Colo. June 18, 1902.

Dear cousin, I have written you a long letter hoping that it may have a value with your sons.

A young man who goes out from home, not merely knowing but feeling that he is a guardian of his mothers, sisters, ancestors good name—knowing, yes, feeling that he carried the untarnished blood of many generations, can't afford to run the risk of losing his precious inheritance. Besides that, it is an inspiration to him, to make good his title to his blood.

My wife and I are in our usual health and we both send love to you, your family, and mother and kin.

Lovingly,
James Hutchison Kerr

Post Script

After reading this letter do you think you could furnish me more dates of births, marriages, and deaths? For intelligent genealogy so much depends on full names and dates and addresses. Have not some old bible – some old records? Can't you awaken some lovers of the family? I am not working for gold or silver but for my children and years of happiness, and my wife, who has beautified the world by her smiles, her words, her songs, her deeds and her beautiful life. She is your mother's full cousin and your second cousin only once removed.

Bidding you the charms of a perfect life, goodnight.

Dear Cousin Lou Bloom,

After giving you an outline of the Williams and Spear Family Genealogy, I concluded not to send it until I had copied your letter into my thought and heart book as a permanent record and put it on file in order that I might thoroughly weigh the information you gave me.

I want to know when your mother was married and where. Please tell me when you and your brother were born. When each of you were married, the full name of your husband, full names and birth dates of those boys of yours. Tell me all about your boys. If you have an old bible, give me a copy of its records.

You make a very valuable statement if it is true, and I think it is, when you say Aunt Clara was born in Penn. Sept. 16, 1803. I simply estimated that she was born in 1802 or 1803, but had nothing to show the day. The Missouri Spears have had a tradition that grandfather Edward Spear came from New England and some said from Conn. Have tried to prove this but have completely failed. At the same time I could not deny it. I take it, that as you give exact date you must have a record of date and place. Be sure and give me a copy of that record.

I trust I have not wearied you. My outline is as brief as the subject will warrant. I want Aunt Clara's families to awake to an appreciation of this noble blood running in their veins by physically, intellectually, morally, and religiously making good.

My wife and I both send love to one and all and big them God's speed.

Your uncle Charles Williams in the early 70's married a Miss Daugherty. Would like to have her Christian name, when they were married and all about her children. Perhaps she will give the information.

Prof. James Hutchison Kerr: Born at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, August 30, 1837; died at Colorado Springs, June 9, 1919. Prof. Kerr began his teaching career at the age of fourteen in the local rural school at Chambersburg. At nineteen he was assistant engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad and even before he entered Yale University, from which institution he was graduated in 1865, he had obtained a practical knowledge of geology which ranked him among the foremost geologists of his day. He came to Missouri in 1865, and was made principal of Jackson Academy, then one of the most important schools in the west. He established the Fruitland Normal College and later was prominent in organizing and managing more than two hundred teachers' institutes between St. Louis and the Gulf of Mexico. He went to Colorado for his health in 1875 and there became president of Colorado College and later a member of the faculty. He traveled all over the world as a consulting geologist and won many high honors and distinctions.
